

CONSUMER BANKERS ASSOCIATION TRIES TO WEAKEN INDIANA'S
TELEPHONE PRIVACY LAW

The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law in a proceeding before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). The CBA is attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. If successful, anybody that you currently have a business relationship with (e.g., your bank, credit card company, long distance carrier) will be able to call you as often as they want.

I would like to file my comments with the FCC opposing the weakening of Indiana's law.

Please DO NOT allow this to happen, the resultant unwanted phone calls will be a significant nuisance, and I'm sure will also serve to corrupt a very effective policy that is much needed by Indiana residents.

Again, please DO NOT allow this to happen in Indiana!!!
